ANNUAL STAFF

FOREWORD

To the students of New Deal High School, New Deal, Texas, we present THE ROAR of 1956. This book is for you. It was planned and assembled with you in mind. We have attempted to capture some of the fun and excitement of various events. Of course, no book can actually record the warm personalities, cheerful hellos, and sad goodbyes--these are only suggested.

We have endeavored to create a yearbook that will be treasured through the years to come, as well as be enjoyed at the present time. It is our sincere hope that you will find this volume a true representation of the 1955-1956 school year in NDHS.

SENIOR PROPHECY

Being in an advanced state of perplexity and confusion, I, John Ford of the prophet committee of the Class of '56, jumped in my speedy "Thunder Bird" and dashed down Highway 87 to consult the greatest of all globe-gazers, Madame Symore Things.

Upon arriving at the "Sign of the Hand," I gathered up all of my resources and personal valuables to make up the minimum 50 cent charge.

Finally, I ventured into Madame Symore Things' dwelling and saw more things!!! This is what she revealed to me-----

Terry Essary is now a devoted wife. And being a do-or-die enthusiast, she is still trying to bake a cake.

Donna White is in the Waves still. She is standing at the rail looking at the beautiful sunset, Oh! correction she is just seasick.

George Carlton is now a well known comedian on Television. George Goble has long since faded away because of the competition.

Carolyn Arthur is now a nurse, she has just perfected an antianemic pill and a foolproof cold preventative. Ain't that nice!

Wilton Phillips is keeping the city in bread, he is now driving a bread truck you know.

Gary Smith is quite the "man about town" in the movie world. He puts butter in the popcorn machine!

Charles Price is still saving box tops trying to get a wedding ring for Helen.

Carl Teeter is on his way to being a big business executive, he now weighs close to 300 pounds.

Elvia Davila is a missionary to deep dark Africa. She finds time to write home between escapes from the cannibals.

Don Snider is now on tour with the BUDWISER HORSES. He can be distinguished from the horses by a large mole under his left ear.

Jerry Don Deavours joined the navy, and is now swimming back to the U.S., someone sunk his mud-duck.

Billy Carpenter is still sitting in Algebra II. He subconsciously repeats to himself, "I can pass Algebra II, without Algebra I. I can pass Algebra II, without Algebra I."

C. L. Cowan wanted to be an old farmer, but he is a new milkman.

We still see James Exum doing Carolyn's bidding, however, he is making a name for himself, for he has just been awarded the "Gold Medal of Award and Achievement" for his latest design---the 1986 Jeep.

Sally Crosnoe was doing alright for herself playing the piano at the New York Philharmonia, until she fell on her head, now she thinks she is a drummer.

Margaret Isaacs is a happy little housewife singing at her chores and not because she's got a new Shelvador.

Juanita Kelly is a state figure in the sporting world. Her squad took second place in the state finals for the third consecutive year. She really knows her coaching--when it comes to dominoes.

Minnie Trammell is a leader in her field of entertainment. She is the proud owner and trainer of "Tree-top's Flea Shop," famous flea collection.

Linda Kay Miller won $64,000 on "It Pays to be Ignorant." Then Bobby Weiss married her for her money.

Dee Ann Abbe adorns the cover of many a magazine these days--especially Field and Stream and U. S. Cattle Reports.

Bettye Lincecum has taken up where Dorothy Dix left off, she advises the sad of heart and the forelorn.

Wilda Flinn is a typing instructor. She teaches in twelve easy lessons, how to type the alphabet or money cheerfully refunded.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the class of "56",
Feeling royal and full of tricks,
Do now divide our property fair,
And make you other students heir.
Being of a sound and intellectual mind,
And feeling joyful and kind,
Under the guidance of heaven sent,
We now make this our last will and testament.

Donna White leaves her office job and teachers too,
To Helen Bradford (Lucky you)

Bettye Lincecum leaves her dignity and poise,
To Beth Covey and Jonnie Looney maybe they will withstand the noise.

Terry Essary wills her brains,
To David Ainsworth whom studying pains.

C. L. Cowan wills his nice physique,
To James Speer so he can be the Sheik.

Gary Smith wills his jokes in class (all of them too),
To David Cox who will never be blue.

Wilton Phillips leaves his love of football,
To Clarence Ashmore for next year's call.

Minnie Trammell wills her quiet ways,
To Nadine Thiel to use in her quieter days.

Linda Miller wills her car so striking,
To Glenna Phillips who doesn't like hiking.

Dee Ann Abbe generously leaves her specks,
To Carroll Teeter to keep him from so many wrecks.

Sally Crosnoe shall gladly will,
To Shirley Perkins her boy-catching skill.

Don Snider leaves his nice big smile,
To Larry Stephenson the girls to beguile.

Margaret Isaacs leaves her out-of-town boys (who are so prevailing)
To Jo Dell Meyers for lots of smooth sailing.

Billy Carpenter wills his old "Ford" (and also his gas)
To anyone who will have it in the Junior Class.

Jerry Deavours wills his place on the football team,
To Joe Ainsworth if he will get on the beam.

Wilda Flinn and Elvia Davila will the concessions
and things to make money,
To Sue Oldham and Virginia Greenhill who think work is funny.

The Senior Girls leave a little more zeal,
To Glen Dean Price hoping that next year's champs
will be New Deal.

Carl Teeter wills his famous underhand shot,
To Dale Wortham who will be able to use it a lot.

George Carlton his shortness we all acclaim,
Leaves it to a guy, John Ford, by name.

Carolyn Arthur leaves her sweaters, of which she is proud,
To Kay Dunlop who likes them loud.

James Exum wills his friendly smile,
To Donald Williamson for him to wear for a while.

Bobby Weill leaves his ability to sleep in class,
To Carroll Teeter who is learning fast.

Charles Price leaves his front seat so dear,
To Donald Stanton who will be here next year.

The Senior boys leave to the Junior boys,
Who are on the football team,
All the luck in this whole wide world,
When you wear those suits of gold and green.

Wilton Phillips leaves his speed to the backfield,
Jerry Deavours his weight to the line,
Gary Smith and C. L. Cowan leave you a score board

That reads: HALE CENTER 0 - NEW DEAL 99
